York - Poquoson Sheriff's Office Hosts the 4th Annual "Shop With a Sheriff" Event

The York-Poquoson Sheriff's Office is holding its Fourth Annual "Shop with a Sheriff" campaign in December. With the help of local churches and schools, sixty children from York County and Poquoson will be selected to participate. These children would normally not otherwise have the opportunity provided by this program.

On December 17th, 2005, the children will arrive at the Wal-Mart Super Centers (Tabb in the lower end of the County and Lightfoot in the upper end of the County) to go Christmas shopping with York-Poquoson deputy sheriffs. This year, "Shop with a Sheriff" will be conducted at both the Tabb and Lightfoot Wal-Marts. In order to spend approximately $100.00 per child, a goal of $6,000.00 has been established and must be raised prior to the identified date.

In order to continue to provide for the kids, Sheriff J. D. "Danny" Diggs, is asking local businesses and individuals to help by contributing this year. Checks should be made payable to Shop with a Sheriff and mailed to the York-Poquoson Sheriff's Office "Shop with a Sheriff," P.O. Box 99, Yorktown, VA 23690. All donations are tax deductible.

The "Shop with a Sheriff" committee requests that individuals, businesses, and community groups, please consider contributing to this extremely worthwhile cause. The York-Poquoson Sheriff's Office hopes that "Shop with a Sheriff" will again be a great success, so that no child will go without a memorable Christmas.

Anyone wishing to contribute or receive information about "Shop with a Sheriff" can contact the York-Poquoson Sheriff's Office at: (757) 890-3653.
